Knight of Holy Judgment
 You are now a member of the Knights of Holy Judgment! As a Knight of Holy Judgment you swore a solemn oath to uphold justice, hunt down the wicked, and serve as a stalwart guardian against devils and demons. May Tyr guide you as you devote yourself to the cause of justice, to the righting of wrongs, and to the deliverance of vengeance!

Joining the Knights of Holy Judgment
 When a character joins the Knights of Holy Judgment, they are given a thin strip of diaphanous cloth to wear over their eyes. Characters can see normally while the cloth covers their eyes. This shows their blind devotion to justice and Tyr.

Any armor or equipment the characters own can be emblazoned with the symbol of Tyr: a set of scales resting atop a warhammer. Characters may also take the Oath of the Knights of Holy Judgment to show their devotion to this knightly order.

The oath is recited out loud in the language of your choice with a weapon raised towards the heavens.
 Oath, "Without justice there is darkness. Without order there is lawlessness. I am a keeper of the law, no mortal is above it. My vengeance upon the wicked shall be swift and my Judgments upon them shall show no mercy. Tyr be praised!"
